- (iii) How does the poet, Walt Whitman, account for the happiness of animals and unhappiness of men on earth in the poem ‘Animals’ ?

5

- (c) Explain with reference to the context :

I think I could turn and live with animals, they're so placid and self-contain'd

I stand and look at them long and long.

They do not sweat and whine about their condition,

They do not lie awake in the dark and weep for their sins.

OR

Who is more happy, when, with heart's content,

Fatigued he sinks into some pleasant lair

Of wavy grass, and reads a debonair

And gentle tale of love and languishment ?
